

Jeff Niten

Jeff Niten has served as City Manager for Shelton, WA since January, 2019. Prior to his appointment as City Manager Jeff served in various leadership and professional roles for municipal governments in Nevada, Oregon and Washington focused on land use planning, economic development, and project management. Jeff has earned a Bachelor's degree focused on public policy from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and an Executive Master of Public Administration degree from the University of South Dakota.

